Re: Corstar Communications, LLC v. Corstar Business Computing Co., Inc. and John F. Sitar Docket No.: 07 Civ 4101 (WP4) (MDF)

Dear Judge Fox:

This letter is in response to counsel's letter of November 13, wherein he raises certain issues with respect to Defendants' production of John Sitar's tax returns. As you will recall, we submitted both redacted tax returns and unredacted tax returns to the Court and forwarded only the redacted tax returns to counsel. Our intention was to redact everything but earned income, as that was what we understood said directive to be. With respect to the issue of failure to remit state returns, it is my understanding that state returns mirror the federal returns and are duplicative with respect to income and deductions. In any event, with respect to the issues raised in Plaintiff's letter, we will forward to counsel, on or before November 30, revised redacted versions of the tax returns, state returns and schedules. Secondly, with respect to certain returns not being signed, my client has remitted the versions of the documents that he has in his possession (copies of the filed originals) and simply does not have signed copies.

Thank you for your assistance.

Very truly yours,
